We are looking for Trainees!

We are a law firm with international background located in the heart of beautiful Budapest. Our main practice areas are corporate and M&A law, competition law, real estate and construction, restructuring, compliance and litigation. Our clients include market leaders across various industries, and we regularly assist them in major transactions, such as intricate acquisition deals, high-profile construction projects, and many more. As part of the prestigious international CERHA HEMPEL network, we also take part in major cross-border projects and also have a number of prominent international clients.

To meet our requirements, you should:

- be a law student (at least third year)
- speak English and / or German at an intermediate level or higher
- have a positive attitude and demonstrate a willingness to learn new things
- be enthusiastic about law and be a team player
- be able to contribute in the preparation of contracts and documents
- be able to research legislation and case law, and to translate documents

What we offer:

- opportunity to take on meaningful tasks
- prominent clients and diverse, challenging cases
- support from a mentor
- inviting and dynamic workplace
- flexible working hours

Take the chance to get started at CERHA HEMPEL!

We look forward to receiving your application! To apply, please send us your CV to hr@cerhahempel.hu
